Obituary of LINDA HODGES

Mrs. Linda Hawkins Hodges, 51 of Grand Island, Florida passed away Friday, August 8, 2014. Born in Ponca City, Oklahoma, she was a lifelong resident of Grand Island. She was a homemaker and a member of First Baptist Church of Umatilla. She is survived by her husband: Will Hodges, Grand Island, FL; son: Justin (Kathie) Hodges, Grand Island, FL; daughter: Steffanie (Cody) Huffines, Leesburg, FL; father and stepmother: Shirley and Sara Hawkins, Tavares, FL; brother: Mark (Landon) Hawkins, Umatilla, FL; sister: Sharon (Jackson) Rogers, Leesburg, FL. Preceded in death by her mother: Beverly. Our precious Linda went home to be with the Lord, she passed with loving family around her in the comfort of her own bed in her own home. She fought a brave and hard fight against metastatic colon cancer. Her spirit throughout this trying ordeal showed what an amazing and beautiful woman she was. We know she is in heaven basking in God's presence and being wrapped up in her mother's loving arms. Linda set the standard for being a wife, mother, and tender caring person with a gracious heart for all. Linda, we love you with all of our broken hearts and will miss your laughter, your smiling eyes, funny sayings and even funnier habits that made you so unique. You were one of a kind and God made you just for us.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family. Linda will be greatly missed by all. She was my walking partner, my Target Clearance shopping partner for many years and a great neighbor!!! We enjoyed a lot of good times with our children together while they were at Treadway Elementary. And also had many special times at Grand Island Baptist church together. RIP my friend.
