“ With love and prayers to a special family. Linda was a beautiful person inside and out. She was the true definition of love and caring. Such special memories fill my mind and heart. She suffers not more as she rests in the arm of Jesus. God be with her loving family during this sad time of loss.

“ Linda's presence in my family's lives the last five years was a divine intervention and I am so grateful for the time I was gifted to spend with her. I only regret that I didn't know her sooner. We could all take a lesson from the way that she lived her life, always putting her family first. I laughed with her about the daily things that happen that make up our earthly life...we shared those knowing looks that didn't need words while working together, admired all the jewels that QVC had to offer, but she was the brightest, rarest jewel of all that no money could buy. She cried with me through my own loss of my oldest son only 8 months ago. Who knew that she would join him so soon? I pray to my Lord that the rest of my life on this earth I will honor her memory by using some of the lessons she taught me, unknowingly...just by her living her life with values and morals, gratitude for the smallest things, her marriage to her beloved George, an example of what we should all strive for in our own relationships. i never heard her say anything but kind things about him, something that is missing in a lot of relationships. Her humble life and the acceptance she showed at the end of her earthly life brings me down on my knees. I love you Linda and you are sorely missed, leaving a huge hole, but I am happy for you and the peace you must be experiencing with your Heavenly Father. Kiss my Jared for me!
