Things about Lisa Freitag

08/05/86 - 01/25/19

She was my gift from God what a blessing she was.

We prayed often that in life or death the Lord Jesus Christ would be glorified.

Lisa lived a good life she was always caring for others she had such a big heart for people of all kinds especially for the less fortunate, her heart was big for animals. She was a rescue mom for sure, but no one loved her girls more than Lisa. Allayah and Dakota were her joy and life. She had a special prayer they shared with each other, would have bible time and talk about the things in life and always focus on Gods way for living, treating others with respect. Lisa and her mommy / boss had a special relationship and she loved her momma.

Her mom poured out her life to take care of Lisa and especially when she became so sick Sarah spent so many sleepless nights with her at home and the hospital never leaving her side right up to the point when Lisa went home to be with our Lord. Lisa was and will always be daddy's little girl and yes I spoiled her, she was my gift from God and she blessed me with 2 of the greatest granddaughters a man could desire, I am so proud of my baby.

Lisa loved outdoors, boating, fishing, horseback riding, sky diving camping and living life to the fullest, she was almost finished with her AA degree and wanted to be a counselor helping people through life's difficulties and heart brakes, I know from many that she was an inspiration and a good friend that genuinely cared for others and was just herself never pretended to be anything she wasn't.

God thank you for each day you blessed us with her love, beautiful smile, caring heart, her adventures life, some pretty wild stories in that journey but it's the journey she took as God always gently pushed her back on the narrow path to lead her Home, while this is all so heart breaking I know without a doubt she is no longer in pain and suffering. Lisa is where I want to be when it's my time, so as we all sojourn through this world together may I and as Lisa desired direct you to focus on the bigger picture, that God Himself directs and guides through this world and everything for a designed purpose for His glory, I shared a thought with Lisa and said do you know you don't have a soul!!!! She stopped and thought about that for a while, then I finished it saying You are a Soul, you have a body, it will fade away. But your soul lives forever. The choice is yours as to where you will spend eternity. Heaven and hell are real. Jesus is the only way and truth. She said yes dad I know and I have him in my heart and He is my Lord. ! My joy is complete. And as Lisa and I talked this was her wish to share with others. She wants to see all her friends and family in heaven.

His promise to us:

John 11:4.

Jesus said this sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God that the son of God may be glorified through it.

John 11:25-26

Jesus said to her I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me though he dies shall live again and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this

1 cor 15 : 50-58

Don't let the despair and sickness of this world keep you from looking to the goodness of the life the Lord has given you, these are things I am learning cause this fallen world will still your joy, but Jesus came to give us life and life abundant. So enjoy life and look forward to the new world to come.

A Funeral Service will be held at the Lady Lake Chapel of Beyers Funeral Home on Wednesday, January 30, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. with a visitation from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. prior to the service. Interment will be in Lady Lake Cemetery, Lady Lake, FL.

“ One of the last things Lisa ever said to me was that Jesus will always be there for me. She really did care about the less fortunate and she really did try to glorify God. I miss her dearly but I want to thank her family for buried her because I can at least still sit with her if I need someone to talk to.

“ I'm very sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. Grief can be so hard especially the first year and though it may seem like death is the final state of things God's word offers the hope of seeing those lost in death again during the promised resurrection. Christ spoke of this resurrection which means a standing back up, a restoration to life. At John 5:28,29 and John 6:40 he says in part "do not marvel at this there is going to be a resurrection...I will resurrect him on the last day". So be assured you can be reunited with your loved one at a time when all things are made new. A time of true peace and security! You can read this at Psalms 37:10,11,29 and Revelation 21:4,5. There are many more heartwarming scriptures that give comfort and hope. For more please visit jw.org
