“ We are very sorry to hear of Liz's death. She was a witty, fun, outgoing person, one who livened up any gathering. She worked hard on the SSHS class reunions the last couple of years, and we enjoyed being with her. She graduated with my brother, Harrell, and they were good friends. Both of them love a good joke. Praying for comfort and strength for the family. May God bless you with his healing and his love. Be happy in knowing that Liz is spending this Christmas in His presence.

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.
