Obituary of Lloyd Case

Lloyd C. Case, Jr. (known by most as Jim), 78 years old, passed away on August 30, 2014 after losing his valiant fight with cancer. He was born on November 22, 1935 in Chicago, IL.

He is predeceased by father, Lloyd C. Case, Sr. and mother, Harriet Case and his son, Michael Case.

Jim served 2 years in the army as a U.S. Paratrooper and was an electrician in Chicago for 40 years, working most of those years for Drouin Electric. He retired in 1996, relocating to Summerfield, Florida and moving to Stonecrest in 2000. He enjoyed bowling, fishing, golfing and traveling. He was past president of the Orange Blossom Gardens Lions Club for 2000-2001. He was most proud of his children and grandchildren who brought him a lot of joy.

Jim is survived by his wife Betty, of 55 years, sons Jeffrey and Daniel, daughter-in-law Elisabeth, grandchildren, Nicole, Tony, Jessica, William, Charlie, Callie, Colton and Courtney, and great granddaughter, Kameryn, brother Russell, sister-in-law Mary, sister Elna Charneia, brother-in-law Donald, and numerous nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Lloyd Case's memory to Hospice of Marion County (Tuscany House) (352) 854-5218.

In keeping with Jim's wishes, there will be no service. The family would like Jim's friends to remember him in their thoughts and prayers.

“ Dan and family, I am so sorry for your loss of a deeply loved one. No words can ease your void from his presence but the memories of him will linger and comfort you in the dark hours ahead. He gave you all a precious gift of being in your lives and that is something so many never experience. My sincere condolences. Cousin Jane in Michigan
