“Lois, my friend, my sister in law, My sister. I will miss hearing her voice along with her kindness and gentleness. I will always remember when I was a kid, she introduced me to cream soda and she and Tony takeing me places like Crystal Lake and haveing me go down the giant slide in the water and she missed catching me at the bottom. . I liked drinking the cream soda, but the lake water was nasty. These are just a few of my memories that we laughed about when we got older. I miss my Lois and Tony so very much. Love, Dolly

“Dear Lois, You and I thought the same way that we felt like sisters. I never thought of you as my sister-in-law, but as my sister, my friend. I'll miss our phone calls. May you, Tony, and Honey look down on us and keep all of your family and friends from harm. Love you and missl you both. Love, Toots

“ HAPPY BIRTHDAY MOM! Hi Mom, I am completely lost. My only joy is that you are with God and now have no pain, can see perfectly and, once again, enjoy the company of Dad and Honey. My fondest memories are of you and Dad jitterbugging across the living room floor in Hialeah to the tune of 33 1/3 records you always played. And our marathon days playing and swimming in the pool. I bet your dance floor and pool in Heaven are the best ever. Of course, who could forget our numerous dinners out, one of our favorite things to do! I miss your guidance, spirit, sense of humor and compassion. Please look down on me with favor and guidance. Love Always, Sandy

“ Hi Mom, Well, you are finally at rest and at peace. The strangest part of you being gone is, not having you to call to answer all of my impromptu questions about anything. You always had the answers. I will miss that. Mom, you were the perfect example of what a lady should be. Thank you for your guidance, and your generous nature. All I had to do was say I wish... and very soon after that, if it was possible for you to do so, my wish was granted. Whether it be shoes, that I didn't NEED, or a guitar and even a telescope, you would make the sacrifice and try you're hardest to make me happy. My sadness is buffered by knowing that you and Dad are dancing together again. Neither of you are in pain and you can see again. I bet the view up there is like nothing you ever imagined. This brings me great joy. So how big is the pool up there? Wow, what a great thought! I'm sure you are swimming when you are not dancing. We all really miss Honey. Dixie and Ginger especially miss her. They have been walking around looking all over for her. The great thing is, I can picture her running to keep up with you two without any more pain from her arthritis. When my strange questions arise, I will speak them into the air and I hope you will send me the answers. I love you Mom. I always will. God Bless You, Dad & Honey.
