“ Aunt Loie was always patient and kind, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness. (Also funny!). She will be the best kind of angel. Love to the Haans from SS.

“ When I think about "Mama Haan," the first thing that comes to mind is her sense of humor; her sarcastic giggles about people's sillinesses. And there's the way she took people into her home, welcomed them at her table, made them feel like part of the family. The way she kept on keeping on, even when her body didn't make it so easy anymore. Her faithfulness to her husband and kids, always loving, always present. The memories are many and beautiful. The loss is great. I pray God's peace and comfort settle in on you, as we remember with gratitude all that Lois was And as we reflect on all that she must be now, in Glory. Remembering With Love, Char
