“ For my dad... This is a sad time, but knowing that mom went fast and with as little pain as possible I hope that is comforting. I miss her dearly, but with her dementia, I have missed her for even longer. Know that Tim and I are here for you, anytime, day or night. (((((((((((((((((((hugs)))))))))))))) Love, Sue

“ Mom, I am so sorry I didn't get to see you before you passed, but some how I knew you knew that I was nearby because you always had that "ESP" thing going on between us. I did see you after you passed and I am forever grateful that you are no longer in pain. As fate would have it, you are very close to your son at the cemetery. You both are at peace and together. I am sorry that I wasn't closer to help you and guide you as you and dad were struggling to find answers. Even though I was miles away I knew early on that something wasn't right, you know I too had that "ESP" thing as well. I will miss you terribly but deep in my heart I am glad you are in a better place. You were held hostage from your terrible disease that is so misunderstood by many. Dad is in good hands and misses you, but he too knows that you are in a better place. He could not see you in pain and discomfort. Mom, just know so many people will miss you and love you dearly. I miss you and love you. Your daughter Judy

“ Dear Sue "Suze", You have my sincere sympathy. I am so sorry for the loss of your Mom. My thoughts and prayers are with you my Dearest Friend, your Dad and your Family at this time. Know your Mom must be fulfilled as she left this world- for she brought You... one of her greatest achievements, such a beautiful person as a gift to the world. Love You. Always, Karen~

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you and yours during this time. Knowing Judy Brown for only a few months, I've had the privilege to understand how loving she is. Just know that my heart breaks for your family. She's in Gods' hands now and he just recruited another angel. God Bless you all. Love, Joshua
