Obituary of Loretta Bradley

Loretta K. Bradley, 81, The Villages, FL, passed away December 19, 2009.

She was born in Binghamton, NY and moved to The Villages from Daytona Beach in 2004.

She was a member of The Villages Art League, Parapsychology Philosophy Club in

The Villages and the Water Aerobics Class of The Villages. Prior to living in Daytona Beach she and her husband ran the first bed and breakfast in Freeport, Maine.

She is survived by her husband Alan Bradley, Daughters Karen Bradley, Chicago, IL;

Susan Bradley-Dryer, Freeport, ME; Son Dr. David Bradley, Portland, ME; Sisters

Valerie Maddox, Laguna, CA; Patricia Klem, The Villages; Judy Getz, The Villages;

Maryann MacGregor, Springhill, FL; 2 Grandchildren Christie and Austin. She and her husband Alan were as much in love during their 64 years of marriage as during the first days of their courtship back in 1948.

Loretta was a classically-trained artist whose paintings conveyed both the beauty and joy which could be always found in nature and in the sea. Her friends speak of her gracious heart and kindness toward everyone she met. She was also an avid animal lover, and often adopted wayward cats and dogs and even a few wandering ducks.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Bradley offered me a rent in their building on School Street in Freeport, Maine, when I was a young woman with a one and a half year old child and an abusive ex-husband. I didn't have a job or money but they took me in. All these years later, I came across an original painting of Mrs. Bradley's and purchased it as a remembrance of those early years of struggle and the kindness of this quiet spoken, compassionate couple. I have often wondered where they were and how they were doing. I didn't realize a daughter still lives in Freeport and a son became a doctor in Portland! They must be so proud. Every time I pass their old bed and breakfast, I wish I had the money to purchase it and restore it to the beauty it was when they lived there. Mr. Bradley, please accept my condolences and know that many in Freeport are thinking of you and keeping you, your family, and friends in their prayers. God bless.
