“ We are sorry not to be at the service for Loretta on Wednesday but want to say that we thought her six years at The Villages were among the happiest in her life. There's nothing she liked better than to be out on the golf course, tooling around in her golf cart or just enjoying the scene from her lovely home. She often talked about the wonderful friends she had made at The Villages. She was my only sister and I miss her terribly but am comforted by the fact that her last years were filled with joy.

“ Dick and Family: Please know that we are so saddened to learn of Loretta's passing. We so enjoyed our good times with both of you on the Bocce courts and the golf course and all the Liberty Park gatherings. She was such a loving and caring person and we are all better for having known her. God Bless you and your entire family and may he grant you Peace and Comfort and Strength to get through these sad days ahead.

“ I remember Jeff's mother so well from Jackie and his wedding day. It was evident that she was the glue that kept her family stuck together. She had the strength, pluck, and compassion to do it. I found it awe-inspiring then and know that didn't waiver over the years from the stories I have heard of her. I know she will be sadly missed and was sorry to hear of the departure of such a grand lady.

“ Richard & Family, Words can not express how sad this news is. I am sorry to hear of Loretta's passing. She was a huge part of my young adulthood, okay...I was a kid. (and many others in the Traymore Ave gang!) Many wise words were giving to me in our talks as she welcome all us kids with food, fun and childhood memories - thank you! You will be miss and forever loved.....say 'hello' to my Dad for me.

“ In the brief times that I have had a chance to be in Mrs. Schaefer's company, I remember most of all, her a watchful eye that no doubt is responsible for shepherding and nurturing of what has proven to be a wonderful, and remarkable family- a family that includes my dearest friends, Jeff and Jackie, and I will always be thankful to her for that- and always keep her in my memory. On behalf of the Gregg family - we are thankful to have been blessed enough to have crossed paths with Lorretta in this big world.
