

Lori Janine Johns

July 22, 1966 - December 8, 2025

Lori Johns, born on July 22, 1966, was a longtime resident of Leesburg. She cherished her roles as a devoted wife and loving mother, which were the greatest joys of her life. Family always came first, and she treasured every moment spent with those she loved. Lori worked as a job coordinator for the Cerebral Palsy Foundation in Maryland, where she was dedicated to helping others and making a meaningful difference in the lives of others. Her compassion and commitment were evident in both her professional work and volunteer service. She was deeply involved in her community, proudly serving as the Leesburg High School band "Mom," as well as a den mother and Scout leader for Troop 143 in Fruitland Park. Lori gave her time generously and was a steady, caring presence for countless children and families. Lori had a special love for ladybugs and found her greatest happiness in spending time with her family. She will be remembered for her kindness, her devotion, and the love she shared so freely. Lori is survived by her loving husband, Kenneth Johns; her sons, Kenneth Johns Jr. and David Ringley (Krystal); her granddaughter, Memphis; her sister, Robin Nickless (James); her niece, Amanda Duvall; her brothers, Kevin Akers (Tamera) and John; her brother-in-law, Greg Davis; her nephew, Josh Bradley; and her niece, Jenny Bradley, along with many extended family members and friends who will forever cherish her memory.
