Obituary of Loriane L. Gibson

Lorraine L."Lo" Gibson, 90, of Leesburg, FL passed away on February 25, 2011.

Mrs. Gibson was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on April 16, 1920. She moved to Leesburg at the age of 17 to live with her Aunt Virginia and worked at 1st National Bank until marrying W. Brunson Gibson in 1946. Lorraine had been a member of First Presbyterian Church of Leesburg where she and Brunson were joined in marriage for 48 years.

Lorraine loved to travel and play golf. She was most proud of her many years as a volunteer tutor both at Beverly Shores and Dabney Elementary schools. Lo and Brunson traveled through all 48 contiguous states and much of Canada in their motor home. They also spent many happy hours at their camp in Homosassa, watching beautiful sunsets together and enjoying family. Lorraine truly loved life and will be greatly missed by her family.

Lorraine is predeceased by her husband Brunson and daughter Lynne Gibson Polk. She is survived by sons Steve (Roanne) and Jimmy (Debbie) and two dearly beloved nieces Donna (Dan) Pincus and Debbie (David) Allen. She is also survived by her son-in-law Bill Polk, two granddaughters Katie (Simon) Van Beek and Callie, with whom Lo spent many happy hours playing board games when they were young, and great-granddaughter Lila.
