

Loudema Gwinn Taylor

July 29, 1946 - August 12, 2021

Loudema "Dema" Gwinn Taylor, 75, Fruitland Park, Florida, passed away peacefully at Cornerstone Hospice in the Villages on August 12, 2021. Dema was born on July 29, 1946 in Pence Springs, West Virginia.

She grew up in Annapolis, Maryland with 4 brothers and 1 sister. She moved to Fruitland Park, FL in February 1980 to be closer to her mother.

She worked in restaurant and office management, until she retired. She enjoyed spending time with her family, British comedy television, reading books, and playing computer skill games.

She is survived by; her 2 sons, James and Stuart, their wives, Kimberly and LeAnn, 4 grandchildren, Jacob, Caleb, Christina, and Breanna, her siblings, Kenneth Gwinn and Kay Gwinn. Dema was preceded in death by her Husband of 52 years, Barry Gibson Taylor.

The family is asking in lieu of flowers, please send a donation to either Cornerstone Hospice in the Villages or the Wounded Warrior Project.

In the place of a funeral service, a celebration of life will be held at a future date.

Tribute Wall

JH

“ Loudema was my cousin. Her father and my father were brothers. I met her when I was a teenager. I live in Sioux City, Iowa where my father worked for Morningside College as a professor of Physics, and was registrar. He died in 1996 in Sioux City.

Jeanne Gwinn Hanna - December 10, 2025 at 04:32 PM