“ Dear Mrs Roscoe & Family,
I'm sorry for your loss. I pray you and your loved ones receive the comfort only God can provide. I am soothed by the words of Jesus at John 11:19-26. Please read them to receive help with grief. My condolences.

“ Darryl: I was sorry to read in the Rome Sentinel of the loss of your husband Louie. My heartfelt condolences to you and your family. I remember meeting Louie at one of our class reunions. I knew right then that he was one of the good guys. May God bless you and yours.

*Sincerely,
Dick Thaler*

“ I wish I could be there to say my good bye. But I know Uncle Lou understands. I was blessed to get one last hug from my Uncle in July. I know he is in a much better place and truly embracing Christ Love.

My love is with all of you not just today, but always.

“ I love you uncle. I will miss you but I know you are in a better place with grandma, grandpa, Aunt Arlene and Russ. One day we will all be together again. We can have a great celebration with our Heavenly Father. Love always.
