

Louise Mary Carbone

October 27, 1923 - January 21, 2023

Louise Mary Carbone, 99, of Marlborough, Massachusetts passed away on January 21, 2023, in Webster, Florida. She was born on October 27, 1923, to Charles and Elvira Birri. She was married in 1948 to John Albert Carbone. She found a house for sale, then lived there her whole life. She was very outgoing, and loved to travel to Europe, New England, Las Vegas and Hawaii. She loved to crochet, read and do puzzles. She is survived by her daughters: Jean and Christine; son: John; two grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and sister: Marion. She is predeceased by her husband: John; daughter: Ann; two brothers, and one sister. A Celebration of Life will be held in Marlborough, Massachusetts at a later date.

Tribute Wall

AD

“ I met Louise when she would come to visit her son, John. He lived across the street from us. Such a lovely, sweet lady. She was always smiling. I had tried to contact John to check on them both, especially on her birthday. I was hoping she would make it to 100. Then I found out that John has passed as well. RIP Louise and John.

amie davis - October 25, 2025 at 07:06 PM

MB

“ Louise was my oldest sister and was blessed to live a long life here on earth. She loved her family and was especially proud of having two great granddaughters. May she Rest In Peace and Rise in Glory! Your baby sister Marion

Marion Birri Butland - January 24, 2023 at 11:04 AM

PR

Marion so sorry to hear about Louise- May she be singing with Angels 🙏 - Pennie

Pennie Ricciarelli - January 25, 2023 at 06:28 PM

MB

“ Marion Birri Butland lit a candle in memory of Louise Mary Carbone

Marion Birri Butland - January 24, 2023 at 11:01 AM