It is with profound sadness that we share the passing of our beloved father Lowell Saxton, who left us on September 5, 2024, at the age of 88. He was a man of immense humor and wisdom, cherishing every moment spent with his loved ones and friends. His passion for motorcycles and his unwavering spirit will forever be remembered.

He had many hobbies and activities that he loved. He enjoyed hunting and fishing at a young age. He loved working in his woodshop creating furniture. He had the opportunity of racing cars but his most beloved passion was motorcycles. He loved every type of motorcycle and was happiest when riding.
