

Lowell Bradford Wells Jr.

April 22, 1969 - December 13, 2025

Lowell Bradford Wells, 56, died Saturday, December 13, 2025, at his home in Lake Panasoffkee with his family by his side.

Lowell was born April 22, 1969, in Brooksville, Fla, to Lowell Wells Sr and Sonja “Powell” Wells.

Lowell was a lifelong resident of Sumter County, Fla., a 1987 graduate of South Sumter.

Lowell is preceded in death by his parents and followed closely by his oldest brother, Timmy Wells, of Tarrytown, Florida.

He is survived by his wife, Carrie Varn Wells (18 years of marriage), and children: Travis (Taylor) Wells, Ryan (Krista) Ball, Ronnie (Marilyn) Comstock, and Delanie Wells. His three grandchildren: Jayden and Knox Ball, and Huxley Bradford Fogle.

Lowell's siblings: Ken Wells, Keith (Kim) Wells, and Tammy (John) Wells. Including many family members that he loved dearly.

Lowell worked for Hewitts Construction of Leesburg for many years and formed many lifelong friendships that led him to Gibbs and Register (present job). Lowell was a hard worker who loved to make his job a priority and make those he worked with proud. Lowell was known for being “just a phone call away.” It didn't matter the time of day or where, he'd be there! He truly always gave from his heart to others. He enjoyed tinkering on things with his family and friends, trail riding in the woods, dancing, and spending time with his family.

Lowell sincerely loved his wife Carrie and the family they had together. He was a wonderful Husband, Father, Peepaw, and Friend.

He was our world and will always be just that; he will be missed dearly by all who knew him. We will continue to carry on his name and the love that he always gave.

There will be a Celebration of Life for Lowell, Saturday, January 10th of 2026, 4 pm to 8 pm at the Rustic Barn Weddings and Events, located at 2616 Cr 673, Bushnell, FL, 33513.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

JAN 10. 4:00 PM - 8:00 PM (ET)

Rustic Bard Weddings and Events
2616 CR 673
Bushnell, FL 33513

Tribute Wall

“ Emerald Garden Basket was purchased for the family of Lowell Bradford Wells Jr..

January 05 at 03:29 PM

10

“ You couldn't ask for a better neighbor in the whole town than Junior. He helped me so many times after I lost my husband Jesse. He helped us both several times. He would do anything for anyone! My condolences to his beautiful family. He will surely be missed.

10078407 - December 30, 2025 at 03:56 PM

DK

“ I have always admired the kindness of Lowell and his family! You could see the love in his eyes when the family gathered! Lowell was a kind soul, loving husband and number ONE dad!

Deborah Knapp - December 20, 2025 at 11:16 AM

“ My Sweet Lowell,

*You are my World The love of my life.
You Are and Forever Will be my Entire Safe Spot. I talk to you And I feel you and Know you didnt want to leave Us. Our Story wasnt over and I know that. Your Sweet eyes told me all I ever needed to know
,And thothe last few months were Unbeievably Hard on Us ,I saw your Strenth and Knew You fought for Us. Im never going to say Goodbye, I will never let our Grandbabies forget You ,Our kids and the family as a Whole. You were the BEST 20 plus years of my entire life and I miss you is just not a big enough word to Exspress. I dont know where Im gonna go the rest of my life But I promise You will be beside me on that journey.
I love You My Sweet Lowell,
Forever Yours Carrie.xo*

Carrie Varn Wells - December 18, 2025 at 08:24 AM

HV

“ Uncle Lowell □

I remember the very first day I met you. I met a lot of new people that day, and little did I know they would all become family — including you. It was your surprise 50th birthday party, and I'll never forget that night. You had me laughing so hard and made me feel like I had known you my entire life.

You were always there — for everyone I know — countless times. You never missed a holiday, a birthday, or a moment that mattered. And one thing that will never be forgotten is the love you had for your family, especially for your wife, Aunt Carrie.

So how do we say goodbye when this wasn't the way it was supposed to be? Leaning in and kissing your forehead in that hospital bed, never imagining that would be the last time I would see you. God must have had bigger plans for you.

*So I just want to say thank you.
Thank you for loving me like family.
Thank you for being you.*

I pray you're at peace and in a better place up in heaven. Until we meet again. □

Heather Varn - December 17, 2025 at 07:32 PM

PW

“ I miss singing your song at Christmas Lowell. You will never be forgotten. Wawa

patty wall - December 17, 2025 at 05:48 PM

HV

Uncle Lowell ☐

I remember the very first day I met you. I met a lot of new people that day, and little did I know they would all become family — including you. It was your surprise 50th birthday party, and I'll never forget that night. You had me laughing so hard and made me feel like I had known you my entire life.

You were always there — for everyone I know — countless times. You never missed a holiday, a birthday, or a moment that mattered. And one thing that will never be forgotten is the love you had for your family, especially for your wife, Aunt Carrie.

So how do we say goodbye when this wasn't the way it was supposed to be? Leaning in and kissing your forehead in that hospital bed, never imagining that would be the last time I would see you. God must have had bigger plans for you.

*So I just want to say thank you.
Thank you for loving me like family.
Thank you for being you.*

I pray you're at peace and in a better place up in heaven. Until we meet again. ☐

Heather Varn - December 17, 2025 at 07:20 PM

PH

I'm so sorry for your loss..I have known Junior my whole life he lived next to my granny him and I went to kindergarten together...As you known kindergarten has to take naps well Junior and I decided we wasn't going to take a nap we was going to walk home we took each other's hand and started walking lol he will certainly be missed

Pamela Howard - December 19, 2025 at 08:44 PM

TH

Lowell, we are sorry we can't be there at your col...I was concerned it'd be when we are gone. I'll always appreciate your sweetness to us from the get go, after meeting you at a family gathering ions ago. Especially the kindness you'd shown to me at Irvie's funeral. Soar w/ the angels our friend. God bless

The Hill's - December 30, 2025 at 05:39 PM

SM

Junior left a lasting mark on all the lives he touched. Our years together at Hewitt were those shared like family. Many laughs and lots of respect both professionally and personally. My condolences to Junior's family and all those closest to him. All of us who knew you, know Heaven is a better place with you in it. God bless

Sherman Manly - January 05 at 03:38 PM