“ Andy and I were so saddened to hear of Gussie's passing - a friend whose presence filled a room with love! Together you were magical in many ways, and yet alone you each personified the words 'Lady' and 'Gentleman'. We know how hard it is to 'let go' of those we love so deeply, but Gussie is now as beautiful as ever, and surrounded by the arms of the Creator - rest well, dear Gussie!! With love to you, Doctor, and those whose lives Gussie touched!

“ Dear Dr. Kimbrough, Its has been a long time since hearing from you and I am very sorry that it took an occasion such as this to contact you again. You probably don't remember me but I serviced your accounts at Highland Community Bank even after you and Mrs. Kimbrough's move to Hilton Head. There are just a few of us left to remember how cordial you and Mrs. Kimbrough were when you served on the Board of Directors. May God bless you and keep you and give you solace in your time of bereavement. My prayers are with you.

“ What a beautiful, vibrant and joyful lady Gussie was! It has been an honor to know her and spend several wonderful times with her and Bob. She never failed to ask, when we saw each other, how my daughter, Lisa, was; (she and Lisa had an immediate bonding when they had previously met.) This was so typical of her concern for others. Her style and grace were benchmarks to which all women should aspire. We will miss her.
