“ Women who serve are absolute volunteers. Women who serve are absolute volunteers. For her service to her country and to its uniformed defenders I know she has been welcomed into heaven by those she served with and by those she served. Those who remain grieve her loss.

“ Although Anne will be missed in Florida, she will also be missed in the Northwoods of Wisconsin where she visited her best friend, Pat Nichol for many years, Missed for score keeping in late night games of Mexican Train, mixing the perfect dry martini, shopping until her flight bag was too heavy, for gifts of Honey Bell oranges each year, and most of all for her warm and winning personality and soft southern accent.
