We can only remember her as the most enjoyable person to be with at Pennbrooke.

“ *Treasured Husband and Family,
Our most heartfelt sympathies to all of you upon the loss of your dear Lynda.
Throughout the years that we were friends she always spoke of each of you with a warm smile and love in her heart. Her admiration, dedication, confidence and appreciation of life far surpass any one I have ever met.*

To truly appreciate life we seek friendship. I am truly blessed to have found that in Lynda.

I will be forever grateful to have known her.

Your family has lost a true shining star. May your wonderful memories live on in your hearts,

Lovingly,

“ As I begin my story there are so many I hardly know which one to choose. I had the pleasure of meeting Lynda and Bob when moving to Pennbrooke Fairways 13 years ago. As I had never golfed before, my husband Ted suggested I go to the free Golf Clinic held here in Pennbrooke.

Lynda was attending also and thus began my admiration for her and treasured friendship. Her infectious smile, tremendous knowledge of the english language (We all know her famous "Word of the day" and kindness to others never uttering anything but compliments.

Moments on the golf course were filled with laughter ! I will always remember her funny wit in as "Beautiful shot Fran but your towards was off or missing a putt was " Holly Molly Rocky". As she tried to get a long drive and it went no where her response was " What the heck was that !" and the list goes on from there !

Treasured memories forever in our hearts,

Lovingly,

Fran and Ted Whitman

“ Bob...Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your wife Lynda. I know that at a time like this there are no words that can even begin to bring comfort or understanding as to her passing. Over my years at 3M,I had the privilege of knowing Lynda and serving with her on several project committees. She was a highly respected leader in the Marketing Communications community and was always such a pleasure to work with. God bless and peace to you and your family.

“ I only knew Lynda for a few months due to joining The Lovely Liberal Ladies from our community Pennbrooke Fairways. From the moment I met her, I knew that here was a lady I wanted to know better. I was drawn to her intelligence and humor. She left everyone too soon but I selfishly feel like I never was able, in such a short time, to know her well. My condolences to her wonderful family. Her request for people to "pay it forward" in her honor speaks volumes about Lynda as a person.

“ Lynda was a "one of a kind" friend, and life without her will not be the same for me and her other LLL friends in Pennbrooke Fairways. I played softball with Lynda, and John and I traveled in France with her and Bob. Whenever I ran into Lynda, I found her big smile, her friendliness, and her sense of humor infectious. We all loved being in her company!

We will miss our friend and we send our sympathy and love to Bob and their big extended family.

“ Radiant. Generous. Joyful. Educated and looking to share it all and soak up more. Capable of making everyone feel wanted and worthy with an extraordinarily ability to remember the people who had crossed paths with her.

Lynda rode in, took over and saved my Aunt and Uncle's lives. And, if that seems too dramatic then I'll say her love saved them from financial ruin. Thoughtful, methodically respectful and always learning something new. She set them up so they can continue a reasonable lifestyle. And I believe she did it all w/o being asked. Lynda is my kind of people. Her style is rare and we knew we were of the same mold from our first conversation: Fast friends and deeply connected.

And now we are left to reflect on her greatness. I love you Muchly. Lynda Mutch- bound for glory. Look at all you did with your one precious life! As your "special note book of wonderful words" puts it: TRANSMOGRIFY. Thank you for everything. xo

“ Ah, Lynda. So sorry to hear of her passing. The world has dimmed a bit. Lynda was one of my best friends in middle school - there was a posse of four of us who were inseparable for several years. I have photos of Lynda, laughing hard, at my 13th birthday slumber party. She brought joy into the world. My condolences to her family. She is missed even from a distance, so I can only imagine your loss. Blessings.

“ I am sorry to hear that Lynda has passed. I will always remember her infectious laugh, her quick wit, and her warm heart. Although we did not keep in touch after high school, she is part of cherished memories of those halcyon days, when we were young and strong, and ready to take on the world. May loving memories comfort you in the days ahead.

Cathie Atchley - July 18, 2017 at 04:20 PM

“ Lynda was my best friend in high school and also my debate partner. We were on the affirmative side of an issue that was something like "Be it resolved that the U.S. not intervene unilaterally in foreign conflicts." We faced off against many other teams, usually guys, some in fancy suits from private schools. This was before computers so many of these guys they would literally roll in carts with several long card files full of cards of evidence to present during debates.

There were Lynda and I, one recipe box apiece, neither box quite full of cards! We maintained we had the most compelling evidence, through, so didn't need much. We actually did fairly well in terms of our win-loss record though. You can imagine that Linda was never at a loss for words!
