“ Dear: family & friends, my deepest sympathy for the pain that everyone is going through. I know as believers we should not mourn as the world, but it still hurts not to have Lynn here physically to hug, pray with, read & study God's word with, praise & worship our beloved JESUS. If anyone had the pleasure to meet Lynn, she was a treasure possession. To my son ( Abraham ) she was G Ma to me she was my Spiritual Mom. Until we meet in heaven, we will all be missing you.

“ Dear Family. Normand and I want to extend our deepest sympathy and condolences for the passing of your mother, your grandmother, sister and the dearest friend I have been privileged to share life with. She was to me a once in a lifetime treasured friend and how I miss the sound of her voice and laughter and the many meaningful conversations we shared. She offered wisdom and much knowledge. Lynn was uplifting and encourager. Love you and praying the comfort of God s love and goodness to you all. Deborah A.

Dear: family & friends, My deepest sympathy goes out to each & everyone whom had the pleasure to have Lynn in their lives. To my son ( Abraham ) she was G ma, to me she was my Spiritual Mom. The image that keeps playing up on my mind, is how she would play the piano & express her deepest love for Jesus our Savior. I know as believers were not to mourn as the world. But it is still so hard to not be able to hug her, hear you pray, sing to JESUS, teach the Word of God or her wonderful laugh. I know the angels are rejoicing to have Lynn up their in heaven with Pop's & her Mom whom she loved so deeply. My & my Son life has never been the same since Lynn has become a part of it. Until we meet again in heaven we will be missing you. Love you G ma & spiritual Mom, friend, mentor, teacher of God's word. ( Abigail M )
