On Tuesday, November 5, 2024, Lynn Malasca (née Agee) peacefully entered into rest, surrounded by love. Born in Cleveland, Ohio on November 7, 1962, Lynn lived a life rich with warmth, kindness, and joy. Lynn always put others before herself. She touched the hearts of everyone she met with her gentle spirit and unwavering compassion.

Lynn is preceded in death by her cherished parents, Michael and Eleanor (Malone), and her beloved brother, Michael Malasca. Though their absence left a deep void, Lynn carried their memory with grace and strength throughout her life.

Lynn was the most incredible, loving sister to Christine Malasca. The special bond they shared was unbreakable and filled with love and laughter.

As the most amazing and caring aunt, Lynn adored her nephews and niece, Matthew Wolf and Tara Wolf, Nick and Eric Malasca, and great-nephew Anthony Wolf. She was also a wonderful niece to Mercedes Malasca.

Lynn's extended family included her father-in-law, Mike Agee, brother and sister-in-law, Troy and Patty Agee, and sister-in-law, Angel Malasca Falon. She deeply treasured her lifelong friend Amy Lyons.

Lynn studied at community college before becoming a surgical technologist, specializing in open-heart surgery, orthopedics, and was a valued member of the transplant and bone retrieval team. Her passion for surgery was recognized by the many people she worked with over the years.

Lynn's boundless love, compassion, and dedication to her family, friends, and profession will forever be cherished by all who had the privilege to know her.

“ Lynn and I met in the summer of 1978 when we moved in next door to each other. We instantly bonded and became life long friends. I have so many memories of fun times. We talked, laughed, cried, danced, worked (Ponderosa!) traveled and even lived together for a brief time. I was so fortunate to see her 2 weeks ago! She was beautiful inside and out and I have been so blessed to have her in my life.
