

Malcolm Chapman

October 3, 2011

Obituary of Malcolm Chapman

CHAPMAN, MALCOLM S. SR. Malcolm Shepherd Chapman, Sr., 88, beloved husband of the late Anna Mae Chapman, died peacefully Monday, October 3, 2011 at The Villages for Hospice in Lady Lake, Florida. He was born in New Haven, CT and was the son of the late Lucy Shepherd Chapman and Joseph Henry Chapman of North Haven, CT. He moved to the Villages 25 years ago from Wallingford, CT. A veteran of World War II, he served as First Lieutenant in the Army Air Force as an advanced Flight Instructor. He was associated with Ford Motor Company for 35 years in various sales capacities and received many awards. He was a member of the Chapel of All Faiths, Lady Lake, FL, and Corinthian Lodge #103, A.F. and A.M. Order of Masons, North Haven, CT and was active in the Village Barbershop Chorus. He is survived by his sons, Malcolm Chapman Jr. of North Haven, CT, Peter Chapman of Moultonboro, New Hampshire, Joseph Chapman of Cheshire, CT; daughter, Cynthia Marco of Wallingford, CT; and three grandchildren. He is also survived by a brother, David Chapman of Wallingford, CT and predeceased by brothers, J. Parker Chapman of North Haven, CT, Linsley Chapman of Wallingford, CT, Douglas Chapman of Tallahassee, FL and Tracy Chapman of Tampa, FL. A private ceremony will be performed at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Malcolm Chapman

October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM