“ *The light from our lives is now gone
A voice we loved is still.
A place is empty in within our hearts
Which can never be filled.
I wish that God could have spared you
If not for a few more years.
We'll hold you close within our hearts
And there you shall remain.
Rest in Peace my dear Loving Wife and thank you for all of your love you have given us.
We pray that God has given you the
The crown that you have truly won.*

“ Mara and Leo may not have spent a lot of years together, but however the years that they spent together were wonderful, I can assure you of that because my self and my wife have spent plenty of time with this wonderful couple. Mara will be missed greatly and as for Leo we feel your loss deeply. Our hearts and prayers go out to the Wilson family in their change of life. My God bless Mara on her journey and also give Leo strength to go on.

“ I was deeply sadden to hear of Mara's passing. We often played together growing up and for a short time we attended high school together and had some real fun times! I haven't seen her in years but thanks to Facebook, we did do some chatting.. :) Praying for all of her family during this difficult time. Will miss you, Cuz!
