

Margaret Clement

December 23, 1924 - June 27, 2022

Margaret “Peg” Hanks Clement, 97, passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on 6/27/22. Peg was born on 12/23/1924, in New Castle, PA. She was the daughter of John and Lucille Leighty. Peg was a graduate of Academy High School and Hamot Nursing School as an R.N. and a long time resident of Erie, PA where she raised her family. She and Dorman then retired to The Plantation in Leesburg, FL where they continued their passion for golf and enjoyed their many friends.

Peg was predeceased in death by her parents and husbands, Donald Shreve and Dorman Hanks and by her sister Patricia Hart. She is survived by her 4 children: son David Hanks (Joan) of The Villages, FL; daughter, Deborah Austin of CA; son, Donald Shreve (Sandra - deceased) of Erie, PA; and son Jay Hanks (Patricia) of Hull, MA; as well as her sister, Jean Koehler of Del Rey, FL. Loving grandmother of David Shreve, Jonathan and Andrea Hanks and Christopher Hanks. Peg was blessed with three great grandchildren, Joseph and Jackson Hanks and Louis Bonfardine.

Donations in Peg's memory can be made to Cornerstone Hospice at www.cornerstonehospice.org.

Condolences may be left at www.beyersfuneralhome.com.
