

Margaret Lonergan

December 16, 1920 - December 18, 2013

Obituary of Margaret Lonergan

Margaret Alan Lonergan, 93 of Leesburg, FL was born on December 16, 1920 in Hamlet, NC and passed away December 18, 2013 in Tavares, FL. Six months after her birth she moved to Charleston, SC where she lived the next 11 years of a wonderful life until the death of her father at 11 years old. Her mother moved the family to Virginia and Margaret went to high school at Barbersville, VA. She attended Mary Washington University for 1 year. She married George Utz in 1940 and had 3 wonderful boys. Margaret loved the animals on the farm and gardening and lived for 16 years of happiness until her husbands death at 42. She later married Shad Lonergan and had 3 lovely stepdaughters and lived the rest of her life in Florida. She moved to Leesburg from Palm Bay in 1995 and was a member of First Presbyterian Church of Leesburg and Women of Hospice.

She is survived by: sons George Lee Utz of Fruitland Park, FL and William Graves Utz of Wilmington, NC; 4 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren and 1 great great grandson.

For those who wish, memorial donations may be made to: First Presbyterian

Church, 200 Lone Oak Dr., Leesburg, FL 34748 or Cornerstone Hospice,
2445 Lane Park Rd, Tavares, FL 32778.

Memorials

For those who wish, memorial donations may be made to: First Presbyterian
Church, 200 Lone Oak Dr., Leesburg, FL 34748 or Cornerstone Hospice,
2445 Lane Park Rd, Tavares, FL 32778.

Tribute Wall

LO

“MOM, you are truly missed. I know you are where you want to be and no longer in and out of the hospital, but the one's left behind always hurt the most. You got to spend Christmas in heaven with your loved one and with The Lord. But remember, yes, I am always "your little girl". I never xould have asked for a sweeter mother-in-law! <3

Lori - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM