

Margaret Joyce Pemble

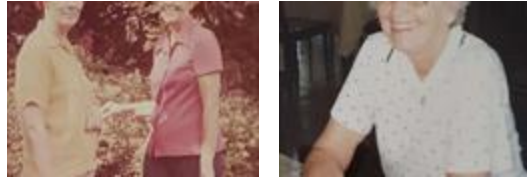

October 25, 1923 - October 4, 2018

Peggy Pemble, born in Leesburg, FL in 1923, daughter of Frank M. and Faire S. Pemble, died on October 4, 2018 at the Lakeview Retirement Center in Altoona, FL. When asked about her educational background, she expressed her gratitude for having been a graduate of Leesburg High, the Class of 1941. Her BS degree came from Florida State and her MRE degree from WMUTS in Louisville, KY. Her vocational career was wide and varied. She loved life and was quick to humorously describe her summer experiences with the Choctaw Indians in OK or down on the River Front in New Orleans. Thirty-five years were spent in Brazil as a kind of Jack of all trades in Christian social ministries. When asked about her denominational preference, her reply was always "I'm just a Baptist from the South." She lived several years in a retirement center reminding herself frequently that a sense of humor always helps during years like these. Her sister, Ann P. Golden of Orlando preceded her in death. She is survived by her brother Frank M. Pemble of Leesburg and six nieces and nephews: Frances P. Deems, Gordon Pemble of Leesburg and Tom Randolph, Jeannie R. Godber, Nancy R. Bartell and Susan R. Costello of Orlando. She will be buried in the Pemble family plot. at Lone Oak cemetery.

“ Aunt Peggy, that was what I called her. My grandmother's best friend. I spent almost every day with her in Brazil when I was a child, when I lived with my grandmother. She was always in a good mood and always dedicated to the work that God placed in her hands to do in Piauí. I learned many things from her. But I will never forget the day we were traveling by car in Florida. She was driving, my grandmother was in the front seat, and I was right behind the driver. The car window was open and a speck of dust got into my eye. I started crying loudly because of the discomfort. She, in her wisdom, did not waver. After a while she said: your tears must have helped remove the speck by now. I stopped crying right away and, to my surprise, I realized that the speck had been removed. I carry this lesson with me to this day: sometimes we need to cry to see better. Thank you, Aunt Peggy, for everything. I honor your life. We will meet in heaven, our true home. “ I am so sorry for the passing of Margaret, my condolences to the Pemble's and Family. I too know well the pain of losing a love one in death. What brings me comfort during this difficult time is God's promise at Revelation 21:4-"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Very soon death will be done away with and we will see our loved ones again. I hope this brings you as much comfort as it does me.

“ Pemble Family, she touched many lives and will be thought of often. May your many wonderful memories of life with her bring you comfort to share with each other during this special time. May you also have the peace and comfort offered by our Heavenly Father Jehovah as promised by his son and our savior, Jesus Christ.
