“ Errol - Marge will remain in our hearts forever. She was such a kind person to everyone and will be dearly missed by all of us that were fortunate to have our life touched by her. Marge was so strong and gave it her best throughout it all, never wanting to give up. She always lit up a room with her smile and laugh. Marge was so supportive and loving as a friend, wife, mom, grandma, daughter, sister, neighbor and everyone she met in life. Her kindness will always be remembered. We know that God has opened his arms to welcome her and she will always be watching over us. We are so grateful to have had Marge in our lives. May she now rest in peace. Errol - Our prayers are with you and your family. With our deepest sympathy, Joe and Rose

“ Dear Verduchi Family, Marge was the first friend I made when I was preparing to take the helm of Junior Achievement of Delaware back in 2008. I appreciated her candor and sense of humor as we worked together to forge a partnership between JA and Chase. I quickly became one of Marge's biggest fans. I shared Marge's obituary with my 8 year old daughter last night and told her the story of how Marge had given her the first teddy bear she ever had. He was fluffy and pink and we appropriately named him "Pink Floyd." Floyd became so filthy after being dropped in a greasy puddle, that (unbeknownst to my daughter) we went out and bought two identical bears...one to replace the first Floyd and one as a backup, just in case. Floyd II never got too dirty, just a little worn. So after a while we broke out Floyd III who is affectionately referred to today as "Clean Floyd." I tell this story as a testament to the ripple effect of Marge's thoughtfulness and love. My daughter and I said a prayer together thanking God for Marge's friendship and blessing her soul. God bless you all.

“ Dear Margie, I feel so fortunate to have met you and to have known you even if it was for a short time. I will always be grateful for the way you greeted me outside of hospice when I was there for my dad and you were there for yours. You appeared at just the right time, sitting down beside me at the fountain and talking to me in a kind and supportive way. Your spirit had a radiance about it - one that comes from a lifetime of treating others with loving kindness. Thank you, Margie. I will miss you! Love, Allison

“ Errol, Marge always had a smile and was always so welcoming to everyone she met. We loved visiting with Marge and you over the years and soak in how much she loved life and especially her retirement life in The Villages. She truly loved all of her grandchildren and was so very proud of all their accomplishments. We know all of her grandchildren will keep forever all of their loving memories of Mom-mom. We are thinking you, your family and Marge's family in this time of grief.
