Obituary of Margery Belair

Margery (DuVall) Belair passed away in Leesburg, FL on September 6, 2013 after a long courageous battle with cancer. She was born in Erie, Michigan in 1934. The oldest of six siblings, she became a caretaker at a young age. Margery married her one and only true love, Kenneth Belair, in 1952. They had 12 children, 18 grand-children and 7 great-grand-children. Marge was known for her baking and often baked for parties and weddings.

She was a crossword fanatic, and watched nearly every episode of Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy. Her recall of trivia was amazing! She loved to fish, gamble, read, and play cards and above all else; she loved to travel. Marge retired from Owens Corning Fiberglass in 1998. She spent her retirement years cruising across the globe, taking bus trips to Biloxi and traveling across the country visiting her children.

Marge will be dearly missed by her husband of 61 years, Kenneth Belair; sons Keith and Joseph Belair; daughters Karen, Jane (John) Day, Yvonne (Gregory) McNulty, Brenda (Mark) Vandegrift, Shirley (Dave) Keil, Trina (Steven) Jeffery, Georgette, and Marcia. She is also survived by 18 grand-children and 7 great-grandchildren, her sister Susie Price and brothers Robert and Fr. Archabbot Justin Tim DuVall. She was preceded in death by her parents, her sister Nancy and her brother Jim, her infant daughter Sandy and infant Son Van and an infant grand-son.

A special thanks to Cornerstone Hospice, Leesburg, FL, and Lake Harris Assisted Living for keeping her comfortable in her last days. The family would also like to thank Marge's special niece Danine and nephew Tony for all of their help throughout the years. Marge was very involved with the VFW and the Catholic Church. She had a passion for feeding the poor and requested that in lieu of flowers, send donations to the Salvation Army Food Pantry of Newark, OH. <http://www.foodpantrynetwork.net/donations>

A funeral mass will be held November 4th at St. Paul's in Leesburg, FL.
