“ Dear Bobby,
So shocked and so sad to hear about your mother.
You know what a wonderful friend and special person that she has always been to our family. I regret that you, Carter and I did not get together for lunch with your mother, because I was still planning on being able to do that.
Jimmy and I are in Tennessee and hope that we can be home in time for your mother's service.
Please let Billy, Alison and Mary know how sorry we are. I truly loved your mother and will miss her. She always was so kind to mother and a genuine friend.
Will be in touch, Bobby.
Love,
Mary Michael and Jimmy

“ My deepest sympathy in the loss of your love one. Phil 4:6, 7 will help you receive the peace of God. John 5:28, 29 assures Jesus will restore life to those who has died. These are wonderful blessings to look forward to knowing your loved one is in God's memory. Hope this thought brings comfort.
