

Marion Margaret McClarin

July 19, 1940 - February 25, 2025

Marion Margaret Taylor McClarin Blomberg was born in Great Kills, Staten Island, NY on July 19, 1940, and passed away peacefully on February 25, 2025 at 84 years of age. She was the daughter of Francis and Bertha Adamo Taylor, and sister of Frances, and F. Raymond, all who are now deceased.

Marion graduated from Tottenville High School and SUNY Fredonia where she received a degree in music education and met her first husband, Donald G. McClarin, also a music educator. Donald passed away in 2011.

Marion is survived by their three children, Donald Jr. (Christine), Ronald Raymond (Brandy), and Bonnie Jean (Terry Cole), all still living. They had ten grandchildren Kyle Snell, Curtis (Keely) McClarin, Cori McClarin, Abigail (Clayton) Hubert, Clayton Snell, Brent Cole, Melissa Cole, Gabrielle (Eric) Crosby, Macy McClarin, Lily McClarin, and two great grandchildren Crew and Riley.

Marion was a lifelong musician having begun the study of piano at the age of five. She was an organist, choir director, piano teacher, and an elementary music teacher at Portville Central School in Portville, NY for twenty-four years. She and Donald traveled all over the eastern seaboard with their students for a multitude of marching band and concert band events. The McClarin's loved to travel and have been in all fifty states as well as traveling abroad. They had a very happy life together. After Donald passed away Marion continued to travel for the next ten years.

In 2013 she was blessed by a second marriage to Douglas Walter Blomberg whom she met at Hope Lutheran Church in The Villages, Fl. They had a very happy life together. Marion was formerly a member of the Hope Lutheran Church Council and has always been an active volunteer in her church both in The Villages and for many years when residing in Portville.

Funeral services will be held on March 11, 2025 at 10:30am at Hope Lutheran church at the Lake Weir campus 10495 SE Sunset Harbor Road, Summerfield, Fl 34491, with a luncheon to follow in the church reception hall. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Marion's memory to The American Cancer Society or Hope Lutheran Church's music ministry.
