“ We love you Aunt Margie and we will miss you dearly. You were a great influence on me when I was younger, teaching me all about matching my outfits, making sure my belt matched my shoes, and all the other fashion rules. My husband laughs at me because I still stick to your rules. You were a beautiful woman inside and out. I miss you already.

“ Mom was not my mother by birth, but she was a terrific mother to me from the day she married my dad when I was eleven years old. For 51 years she loved me, guided and gave me good advice. (Which unfortunately I frequently ignored as a younger person.) I love her and will miss her every day.

“ I remember Mrs. Scott as a wonderful lady and a great Art teacher. She taught my two sons, Michael and Andy in the 1980's at New Market Elementary School in New Market, Md. She was a kind and caring person and dedicated teacher, and a lot of fun! I'll remember her fondly.

“ Aunt Margie was a wonderful woman and great aunt. I remember all of the great times when she and Uncle Scotty visited Mom and Dad and visiting with them in Fla. It was always a special treat when they came from Florida for the family reunion. You will be missed but not forgotten.

“ I feel so blest to have known Margie for such a short time. Sassy and I always enjoyed visiting with her and her family at Hospice. It was one of the "high lights" of our visit to Hospice. I am so sorry she is gone, but I know she is in a better place.

“ Dear Charles and Family, I worked with Marge at New Market Elem. School in New Market, MD, from 1974 - 1984. Marge was an enthusiastic art teacher, and I taught 6th and later 5th grade. My students loved Art because Marge made Art fun. She greeted each student with a smile, and she made each child feel successful as well as creative. I also remember that Marge was one of the first faculty members to be on the band- wagon about lowering the use of salt at our lunch table in the staff lounge. She knew that reducing your salt intake would help to avoid high blood pressure. Marge had a sparkling personality and I will always remember her cheery smile. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy for your loss. Faye W. Buckingham Frederick, Maryland

“ I remember Mrs. Scott so well. I was in her art classes at New Market Elementary School in the 80's. What a wonderful lady. I don't think I can remember a day when she didn't have a smile on her face. She was a truly awesome art teacher and I thank her for always encouraging my creativity and abilities. It is because of her that I still enjoy art. I am sure she will be missed. I offer my deepest sympathy to her family. Lorri Loveland Hagerstown, MD
