“ I am so sorry Pam. I don't know you but I think I know the Eyer family. I was raised in the Assembly of God in Windber and there was a Bro and Sister Eyer that preached at our church and I think his son was Assembly of God in Jtown? Are you related. I was glad to see that Mark knew the Lord and is Celebrating his first Christmas in Heaven singing in the heavenly Chior. Please reach out to me if you are the Elyer clan I mentioned. ! Your all in my prayers that the Holy Ghost will comfort you in your time of loss!

“ My condolences to Mark's family. I am so sorry for your loss. We were in the high school band together. It was good to read he was still playing drums and singing in church. What i remember most though is, if there was anyone who could make you laugh, it was Mark.

“ Dear Donato family: It is with sadness and shock that I hear of Mark's passing. As youngsters in Windber, we grew up and played in the school band together as fellow drummers. At that time, Mark was known as Donuts. I'll always remember how humor and smiles came so easily for him. He was at his best when he could make others laugh. While we lost contact over the years, I fondly remember our times together. May you find comfort and peace in the Lord's embrace. God bless you all and you will remain in my prayersa.

“ Dear Pam and family, Mark was a delightful person to be around and we always enjoyed spending time with him. He was a special man who loved jJesus and his family and was faithful to what he believed. There are no words that will take away the awful sorrow and loss but we are praying for you and trusting God to lead and guide you and to keep you in His big hands. You are in our hearts and we are praying for you to have peace and comfort. Love, Terry and Sharon Garrison

“ Mark was loved by everyone at ClarkDietrich. I started my career under his guidance back in Blairsville and I will always remember him as the Best Salesman in the business. His passion for "The Burg", Steelers, Penguins and business was infectious. My heart and prayers go out to all he met because during this holiday season, his Gift of Life and friendship will be greatly missed.

Mark was always being silly and making me and the rest of the staff laugh. What a great Angel God has received! My thoughts and prayers to you. Tabatha Sanchez

“ I had the pleasure to call Mark my friend. We went to church together where we were on the Praise and Worship team at Oxford Assembly of God. I am so saddened by this loss as I feel I have lost a brother. Mark was so much fun to be around but also an inspiration to so many in his love for his family and his Lord. The last time he was in church, he sang " How great thou art". I will never forget how he gave his all that day despite the fact he was fighting a battle. He sang the best I had ever heard him. I pray for comfort for his precious wife Pam and the rest of his family.

“ Dear Donato Family, I join with so many others that knew Mark in offering my deepest sympathy. I can still see him on the stage at WAHS, with his drum set, performing what at that time was the hit tune "Wipe-out". I pray that God will give you all strength and courage in your time of bereavement.
