“ Hard for me to know what to say, because I'm still expecting Mark to come walking in. I guess we truly don't appreciate fully what we have unless we lose it. What a wonderful person & friend we lost, but he will never be gone from our lives. We love him, & we love you, Josh & Britney too, Karen. We're here if you need us.

“ My prayers with the Miller Family! Mark was that rare soul that brought a joyful spirit. Having spent many years sharing an office with Karen, I was blessed to witness a truly living couple! The respect, friendship, and love they shared was amazing. Mark always up for a joke on someone, better yet, the best sport when the joke was played on him! You will be missed by all blessed to have known you. Heaven haas gotten a true Angel!

“ Our deepest sympathies to all of the Miller Family. I have no words to express the deep sorrow you all are carrying at this time. I've know Mark all my life & have been remembering all the fun times shared by our families, picnics, campfires, church activities shared... & the 1st family I knew to own a VW van. Our thoughts & prayers to each of you in these tough days to come. God be with you all!

“ How do you say goodbye to a man who's been neighbor, friend and family for over 20 years. We'll miss having him slip down for coffee, something Karen never acquired the taste for, a friendly chat or to check to see what's on the grill. He could throw together some strange recipes that usually turned out right and he loved a good party. We'll miss you and pray that your family may find some comfort in knowing you lived your life with gusto. Hope you're somewhere by a fire swapping lies and sharing a little of your special brew with your brother and father. We'll miss you beyond words.

“ There is no greater sadness than the tragic untimely loss of a loved one. To know Mark was to Love him. He could always make me laugh and you just felt safe knowing someone like Mark was in this world.His love for Karen and Joshua was unfaltering and protective, he would do anything for them. He lived his life to the fullest and as you can see by all the lives he touched, he was truly loved by everyone. My heart breaks for Karen as I know she has lost her best friend, her soul mate and the love of her life. I pray for her, Joshua and their entire family. May they always feel his love in their hearts and know that he will never be forgotten.

“ Sending prayers from Indiana. I have many fond memories of Mark growing up. He and Tom walked me home many times from church in Avilla. They were like brothers to me all through school. I feel so blessed that they were both in my path of life. May peace be with you all.

“ A man loved by everyone!!!! We lost an awesome man on earth but heaven gained an incredible angel!!! My few encounters with Mark were great!!! I wish there had been more. But one thing I learned from Mark and Karen is that "true love" that "once in a lifetime love" does exist. I witnessed it in Karen and Mark. While I don't have any great words to say...I can say that Mark may be gone but he left many lessons learned on earth...and Karen...we will be your support and strength and love!!!! RIP Mark...love "ur lil redneck girl"
