“ Good Morning (May 20, 2016) - It was with deep sadness that I opened an envelope from Phoebe Forbes (our neighbor when we were children) with a letter and a copy of Marlene's obituary. We all have our own journeys to travel. I am so blessed for the portion of Marlene journey that she spent with me growing up. . As I am also blessed by the time I have known your family. I am honored to say that I learned so much from your mom, and have wonderful memories of my friendship with Marlene, Terry, and Chrisy. From the obituary, I was happy to see that Marlene was blessed with wonderful children and grandchildren. I remember Marlene as smart, funny, courageous, thoughtful, honest, and tenacious. I hope she had the opportunity to live life to the fullest. My blessings and prayers are with you. Love, Marjory

“ Truly saddened to learn of Aunt Marlene's passing. She was always a very kind, loving, and generous aunt. She gave me a wishbone necklace that belonged to her mother, my grandmother, and I wore it on my wedding day. Now when I wear it I'll think of Marlene too. I'll miss her kisses and her love of family gatherings. RIP Aunt Marlene, you will be so missed.
