Marshall Charles Adams was born to Jesse and Daisy Adams in Detroit, MI on March 18, 1939. He was raised in Detroit and had five siblings, in which four preceded him in death.

Marshall was educated in the Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Northwestern High School in 1957. After graduation he joined the United States Coast Guards. During the time of his service he was awarded several medals of honor.

He developed a passion for art and music. He became quite an "Artist." You will find his paintings from his art collections hanging in schools, homes, and offices being admired by people from all walks of life.

During his time in the military, he began his family and parented nine children. At the age of 64, he found his childhood sweetheart, Christine, and was united in marriage on April 29, 2006. To this marriage was added two step children.

Marshall was baptized in 2004 at Gate To Glory Apostolic Faith Church and it was then that he began his walk with the Lord. Soon afterwards, he became a member of Word of Grace Church in Taylor, MI. After several years of loyal and faithful dedication, he became a member of the Deacon Board serving until his move to Florida in 2017.

Marshall leaves to cherish his memories, his loving wife, Christine, eleven children, thirteen grandchildren, six great-grand children, one sister, a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

“ To The Adams Family;

Marshall was one of the finest men that I ever had the pleasure of knowing. His wisdom, character, intellect, and faith in God was second to none. He fought a good fight, he finished his course, and he kept the faith. I pray that the Word of God will give you strength, and that the peace of God will give you comfort. You're in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Chrissy, my heart goes out to you and my prayers also. I have one of those home in which hangs some of Marshall's art. I am so proud to have met him and to be his friend. You were blessed to have him as your husband and the love that he gave you was extra ordinary, as he proved when you moved to Florida. I will never forget him and his love for you. RIP Marshall. We will see you again.
