I am so incredibly grateful to have had such a wonderful, beautiful, and graceful Granny in my life. I cherish the time I had with her more than anything. I loved spending time in her sewing room with her and sneaking out to her beautiful garden. She would catch me eating all her vegetables and used to call me her little bunny rabbit. She taught me so many important lessons and always showed me love and respect. I wouldn't be the person I am today without her and I will always love and miss her, until we meet again someday.
