“ Dear Cunninghams,
Take comfort in the sweet memories you hold close to your heart. When I think of MaryLou, I remember her positive spirit. Whenever we were together, which was usually in a group atmosphere, everyone wanted to be around her! Always sharing a beautiful smile and pleasant words, she often told me how blessed she was. MaryLou will be missed by many and remembered fondly.

“ To the family: Steve and I had the privilege of knowing both Tom & Mary Lou through Chapter 87 bingo. I continued to visit her (and Butch) for several years in Leesburg. She was a special lady and will be greatly missed. She has joined the ranks of other angels. She has gone home. Rest in peace my friend.
