“ Although the pain of knowing you aren't here is awful, the smile and laughter your memories bring are immeasurable. My thoughts are with you and Linda. I find comfort in the fact that you are no longer in pain. Love you both very much! Love, Jennifer

“ Dear Linda, Larry and I are very sorry for the loss of your sister and our dear friend "Boston Mary". She was quite a character and we enjoyed many years of laughter and good times with her. Again, thank you for sharing your sister with us. May you find peace in this difficult time.

“ Mary was a special person with such a great sense of humor and so many interesting stories to tell about her life in Boston which she cherished. So many friends (old and new) will miss her. Moosh, her dog who she loved dearly, will miss her as well. Mary was a good daughter who cared for her Mother for years. She was devoted to her sister, Linda, who was also devoted to her. Our heartfelt sympathy to her family and all of her friends throughout the country.
