Obituary of Mary Harshbarger

Mary Lucille "Lucy" Harshbarger, 89, of Leesburg, FL, passed away peacefully on October 26, 2016 at home. Formerly of Melbourne, FL, and Greenville, OH. Mary was born December 21, 1926 in Troy, OH, to Raymond and Mary (Brandenburg) Hutchinson. On December 3, 1944, Lucy married the love of her life, Donald Harshbarger in Miami CO., OH. They were married 71 years before Don passed away December 9, 2015.

Lucy is survived by her son Nick (Pat) Harshbarger of Leesburg, FL and a daughter, Sandy Harshbarger of Covington, OH; nine grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren, and one brother, Raymond Hutchinson, Jr. of Covington, OH. Lucy is preceded in death by her husband Don and a daughter Marcia Clark; six brothers and two sisters.

Lucy wore many hats in her lifetime: worked at Decker's in Troy, OH and became a full-time mother after her children came. She was a PTA president; ten plus years as a 4-H leader, a room mother for all her children and a band parent and chaperone. Lucy taught her children to cook and sew. She sewed most of their clothing along with her and Don's. She attended the children's activities while they were in school and numerous nieces and nephews performances. After moving to Florida, she became an avid artist and painted many oil paintings for family and friends. She also took up roller skating, but gave it up after breaking several bones from falls. Lucy and Don were also square dancers and traveled all over the country for national conventions.

In honor of her wishes, there will be no formal services. In lieu of flowers, please send a donation to your favorite charity.
