

Mary Lloyd Holsaple

July 13, 1937 - January 11, 2021

Mary Holsaple passed away on January 11, 2021 at the age of 83 years from complications resulting from CoViD-19. Mary was born on July 13, 1937 as Mary Jane Worth, to her parents Orville Jay Worth and Myrtle Ruth Worth (ex Charles). Mary was the eldest child to two siblings Barbara and James. She married Richard (Dick) Lloyd in 1954 and had two children, Richard Lloyd (Rick) and Sherri Lloyd. Many years later Mary later remarried, to Robert Holsaple in 1998. Both of her parents and siblings preceded her in death, as well as her daughter and second husband. She is survived by her son Rick and two granddaughters, Allison Lloyd and Andrea Lloyd.

Mary was born and grew up in Muskegon, Michigan. After Rick was born the family moved to the Washington DC area, both in Virginia, then Maryland. Mary worked for more than 20 years for Sears & Roebuck and became the manager of the cosmetics department and later an assistant store manager in a large suburban Maryland store. She retired and moved to Myrtle Beach South Carolina for a few years, then to the Villages in central Florida, where she was joined by her mother Myrtle, who became a neighbor close by for several years until her passing in 2002. She was a kind and very friendly woman with a nice sense of humor.

There will be a private online remembrance for family members; no flowers or donations please. She will be interred at Florida National Cemetery together with her husband Robert Holsaple.

“ Rick, Allison, Andrea and Jenni,
My sympathy, thoughts and prayers are with you at this time.
I will miss visits, exchanging birthday cards and calls with Mary (we always kept up with the Charles Family).
Mary was pretty, sociable and had a good sense of humor.
Keep in touch,
Cousin Karen Wickstrom (in Florida)
