“ All my memories of Aunt Nadine are of a precious woman who loved her family and everyone with whom she came in contact with by the love of Jesus Christ. I was blessed to have witnessed her example of a godly life and the special love and commitment shared between she and my mother (her only sister), and my Uncle Lanning-her brother their entire lives. I loved her and will miss her, but I know she has made it to the destination to which she was always heading.
