“Mary Clare - my best. Friend for oh so many yeats . I loved her like a sister. She and her family have been family. We laughed and cried, we worked together and just were together. She was truly my angel on earth. I had just bought her an angel card. For best friend. No one will or ever could take her place. Every day she brought joy to all she met. She made. A difference. The world was a better place because of her life. Mary, I will think of you every day and I know you are in a better. Place. No pain or suffering. Tom was her soul mate and I love you too. I am sure the Heavens are singing her praises as we shall also. I will miss you every day and my love will be with you until we meet again. Sharonp
