“ I have so many memories of Mary, dating back to the early 1970's when we lived in the same stairwell at Patch Barracks near Stuttgart, Germany. As friends, we enjoyed Officer's Wives Club-sponsored tours in former Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia. Many years before the wall came down, Mary and I enjoyed a "unique peek" into East Berlin on a USO tour, where we took pictures of each other with an East German soldier standing guard before a building. He didn't blink an eye. Suddenly, he clicked his heels, turned and marched into the building - then waved a friendly hand at us from an inside window. We've celebrated birthdays, anniversaries, graduations and weddings together; enjoyed Oktoberfest in Germany and Helen, GA. Our families seemed to be "family" even before our children Mike and Kathi were married. Since then we've shared grandchildren and great grandchildren. We've continued traveling together, cruising together and keeping in touch through letters, phone calls and visits. We've laughed and sorrowed together. Sometimes we've been so silly our children have called us "Lucy and Ethel." (She was Lucy; I was Ethel). Time, distance and circumstances can stretch good friendships, but the best ones can't be broken. Ours was one of the best! Goodbye for now, Mary. I'll always love you.
