“ One of my mom's closest friends before she passed in 2004. I'll always remember her big smile and contagious laugh. And that you don't rinse spaghetti!

“ I always loved being able to say that I still have my Godmother (and Godfather) still with me. I'll treasure the many pictures we took through the years of the three of us. In fact, after I was born, my parents used a picture of the 3 of us on their Christmas card. Love you always, Godmother. Ready in eternal peace. 🙏❤️ Your Goddaughter

“ Mary Ann was a beautiful person and a good friend. I became her first friend when she moved to Smallwood Place. She was instrumental in getting the block parties started as well as the driveway dinners. Mary Ann always had a new game to teach us whether it was cards, board game or word game. I will never forget her. We enjoyed our time to gather being cruising, eating out, vacations, or just socializing. Rest in peace my dear friend
