

Maryesther A. Carman

May 7, 1933 - December 14, 2018

MaryEsther Carman, of Lake Port Square in Leesburg, died on Friday, December 14. Born in Bloomfield, New Jersey on May 7, 1933, she spent her early years in rural Saskatchewan, Canada where her father was minister. Then her family moved to Ohio, and she attended Kent State University. While raising her three children, she and her family lived in the Philippines where her first husband worked for the Peace Corps. After that she started a career as an educator in Montgomery County, Maryland. She and her second husband, Richard Carman, retired to Delaware, and after Richard's death she moved to Ocala, and then came to Lake Port in 2012. Mrs. Carman is survived by her brother and his wife, Arthur and Lyn Arvay of Wooster, Ohio; her three children, Marybeth, Scott, and Douglas McDonald; and, two grandchildren Martin and Kayla McDonald.

“ I am so very sorry for the loss of your mother and grandmother.

I met Mary Esther when she moved to Ocala Palms and we have been the best of friends ever since.

I miss her so much. She will always be in my memories. I think of her often and of the special times we shared. I loved her very much.
