“ A life well lived that is all we can ask for and even though she had loss and heart aches in her life she met everyday with a smile and kind words for she new who her Savior was, and she hopes that everyone can know Him so that there life can be a beautiful testimony to the Love of Jesus. Mary France you have always been that lady I wanted to be like and I hope that I can always meet life's challenges with the grace that God afford you in your Beautiful Life. You are sorely missed ❤️
