

Matthew P. Dorman

December 30, 1995 - April 22, 2026

Matthew Peter Dorman, 30, of Eustis, Florida passed away on April 22, 2026.

Matthew was born on December 30, 1995, at Waterman to Jennifer and Peter Dorman.

Matthew was known for his kind heart, his honesty, and the genuine way he connected with others. He had a unique personality from a young age—one that brought humor, light, and sincerity to those around him. He saw the world in his own way, often with an innocence that made people smile and a heart that never carried ill intent.

He loved deeply—his family, his friends, and animals alike. Matthew was fiercely loyal and protective in his own way, always wanting the people he loved to be safe and cared for. He took pride in those around him and never hesitated to let them know.

Matthew also found a sense of purpose and community through his work at A.W. Petersons, where he spent much of his time and built meaningful relationships. The friendships he formed there became like family, and it was a place where he felt valued and connected.

Though he faced many challenges throughout his life, Matthew lived fully and in his own way. His strength, resilience, and the love he gave to others will not be forgotten.

He is survived by his loving mother, Jennifer Dorman; his sister, Lauren Dorman; his niece, Nova Dorman-Makl; and many friends who will miss him deeply.

Matthew will be remembered for his kind spirit, his honesty, his humor, and the love he gave so freely. His memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

He will be deeply missed and forever loved.

RE

The last time we spoke you said "come in" Whats that smell? it smells delicious. "Oh, im making pie. It just finished. Come get some" He then cut me a slice of hot cherry pie and added a scoop of vanilla ice cream, sat me down. He, Jennifer and I chatted and he was so joyed to just be there to chat with me. He looked unwell but he hide it way too well. I love you so much, you've given me so many happy memories I will forever have.
