“ To a man who can never be replaced - plain and simple he was my dad. Someone who I loved unconditionally to the moon and back as did my children Fran and James. You will be in our hearts eternally until we meet again x

“ Maurice was a fun loving individual with the most wonderful English accent. When I met him I asked so many questions about the Queen, Diana, Tony Blair, etc. He was so patient and told me and my grandchildren as much as he could and it was a wonderful conversation. I will certainly remember him. May he rest in peace.

“Gone but not forgotte A Dad is a person Who is loving and kind, And often he knows What you have on your mind. He's someone who listens, suggests, and defends A dad can be one of your very best friends; He's proud of your triumphs, but when things go wrong, A dad can be patient and helpful and strong. In all that you do, a dad; love plays a part There's always a place for him deep in your heart And each year that passes, you're even more glad, More grateful and proud just to call him your dad; Thank you Dad... for listening and caring, for giving and sharing, but, especially, for just being you. Love Roger (Your youngest, best looking and funniest child) x x x

“Quite simply, a beautiful man with a beautiful family. You had a strength that ran through everyone. It was an honour and a pleasure to have known and loved you. That gorgeous, cheeky smile will stay in my heart forever. Rest in peace Uncle Maurice. Tracey x

“Rest in peace Dad, I will always be grateful to the start you and Mum gave to me and my brother and sister. You taught me the importance of family values and the value what of a father is and should be to his children in their informative years. You were strict yet playful. At times distant and at other times loving. You could be fun and serious, silly then hard. You were hard working and always able to bounce back from set backs. Goodbye from your Oldest Son, your 7 Grandchildren (Rikki, Elizabeth, Robert, William, Grace, Victoria and Oliver), and your 2 Great Grandchildren (Ella -May and Maxwell)

“ Cheryl: Connie and I were very sad when we learned about Maurice's passing. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and the rest of the family. Our card to you was returned as non-deliverable. We learned today that you had moved. We are so sorry for your loss. He was a great guy and we will always have the memories of the Roman Mystery Party. With Love, Tom & Connie Brown
