“ I shall miss my best friend Mavine. We shared good times and not so good times for the last 50 years. She was like a member of the Santti family. I have many fond memories of our trips together as single gals and also with our spouses. She will be missed by many.

“ Mavine was close to my family my entire childhood and later I considered her my friend. Early on I recognized her grace and her style. Someday, I thought, I will be just like her. In later years I grew to appreciate her sense of humor and her quick wit. She could always make me laugh, she could always make me feel special and I will always keep her close to my heart. I'm going to miss you Mavine. Love, Millie

“ My dear stepmom. You will be so miss by Me. 42 years with my father, is proof that their love shined. Mavine has always shown me strength when I needed it. We had many laughs and cry's throughout the years. Her and my dad opened their Florida home to my family and treated us to Disney World yearly. Mavine is with my dad once again, but honestly.....too soon for me. I miss her each and everyday. But both of them, I know, will continue to give me strength.

“ I will miss my friends, both Jack and Mavine McCoy. I met them in January 1967 at Michigan Bell Telephone Co. Mavine was still Mavine Bronikowski. Jack was a Management Training Teacher. I was the Stenographer in his office. I never would have thought we'd be such close friends over 50 years later.

Mavine and I were part of the "F troop" as we called ourselves (for female troop). There were 5 of us.

We would take off at least one day a year and go on a day trip together, starting with Frankenmuth, Michigan. Once, 4 of us who were left in Michigan, took a week off to go visit Mavine and Jack in Leesburg, FL. They loved each other so much. I am not real surprised Mavine is now up in Heaven to be with her long loved husband. I still will miss them both.
